

The African American Read-In

The Power of the Word

with

Haki Madhubuti & Mahmoud El-Kati

As poet, publisher and founder of Third World Press, editor and educator, Dr. Madhubuti has published more than 28 books (some under his former name, Don L. Lee) and is one of the world's best-selling authors of poetry and nonfiction. His Black Men: Obsolete, Single, Dangerous?: The African American Family in Transition (1990) has sold more than 1 million copies. His Liberation Narrative: New and Collected Poems is published in conjunction with Third World Press' 40th Anniversary as an independent publisher.

Mahmoud El-Kati is a lecturer, writer, and commentator on the African American experience. He is a former Lecturer at Macalester College, he is also author of Politically Considered: 50th Commemoration of the Supreme Court Decision of 1954 and the famed poem "Ode to Africa" and the Hiptionary published in 2009.
