

THE AFRICAN AMERICAN READ-IN

presents

Quincy Troupe

Author of 9 books, the latest Choruses, (Coffee House Press). Winner of two American Book Awards for Snake-back Solos in 1980 and for Miles: The Autobiography in 1990. Troupe won a Peabody Award for the Miles Davis Radio Project, he also edited James Baldwin: The Legacy. Troupe was featured in the PBS award winning series The Power of Words. He is the Editorial Director of Code magazine and a Professor of Creative Writing and Caribbean Literature at the University of California, San Diego.

Join in the African American Read-In. An afternoon celebrating African American Literature. Featuring readings and dramatic performances by youth, students, community members, educators. The entire village will be represented.

Sunday, Feb. 6, 2000

2:00 p.m.

Free Admission

Whitney Fine Arts Theatre

Minneapolis Technical & Community College

1424 Yale Place (corner of Yale and Spruce)

Minneapolis, MN

Readings and performances by:

J. Otis Powell! - Anika - Mahmoud El-Kati - Toki Wright

and many others

Lots of prizes and gifts will be given away

For more information please call

612 -626-7352

Co-sponsored by the following:

The General College & General College Student Board - U of MN

The Africana Student Cultural Center - U of MN

Associate Vice President For Multicultural and Academic Affairs - U of MN

Department of Afro American & African Studies - U of MN

Multicultural Student Support Services - MCTC

Borders Book Shop - Minnetonka - Uptown

Starbucks - Dinkytown

The Givens Foundation For African American Literature

