

1st Annual
Summer Celebration of African American Literature

Sponsored by The African American Read In Chain Featuring

Dr. Na'im Akbar

Na'im Akbar has been described by Essence Magazine as "one of the world's pre-eminent African-American psychologists and a pioneer in the development of an African-centered approach to modern psychology."

He is the author of From Miseducation to Education, Breaking the Chains of Psychological Slavery, Visions for Black Men, The Community of Self, and Light from Ancient Africa, just to name a few. His books and articles exploring the personality development of African-Americans have led to numerous network television appearances, including "Oprah Winfrey," "Geraldo," and "Tony Brown's Journal."
