Mental Health

The Center for Excellence in Children's Mental Health and Harris Programs of the University of Minnesota are partnering to sponsor a series on culture in the context of children's mental health. The combined series will feature three Lessons from the Field workshops as well as the annual spring Harris Forum.

The lead presenter for the first workshop in the series will be Karina L. Walters, Ph.D., a member of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma, founded and directs the university-wide, Interdisciplinary Indigenous Wellness Research Institute at the University of Washington and is an affiliate faculty of the West Coast Poverty Center. Her research focuses on historical, social, and cultural determinants of physical and mental health among Native American individuals, families and communities as well as cultures of poverty and two-spiritedness.

Metro Location: Coffman Union Theater, University of MN, Minneapolis Campus

Greater Minnesota Host Sites: The Series will be broadcast live to over 25 ITV and video stream host sites in Greater Minnesota.

For host site listings, fee schedule or to register, visit: www.cmh.umn.edu

CEU's in process through MN DHS Child Protection and Boards of Psychology, Social Work and Marriage and Family Therapy.

Please check back at www.cmh.umn.edu for additional workshops in the series.
