

School of Social Work
Leadership for a just and caring society

Research in Progress...

A Series of Informal Discussions of New Research in Social Work

Date: Thursday, September 24, 2009

Time: Noon to 1:00pm

Place: 74 Peters Hall, St. Paul Campus, University of Minnesota

Cost: Free, CEU certificate upon request

Intervention Research:

What Works, for Whom, Under What Conditions?

Featuring:

Professor Jane Gilgun

Alankaar Sharma

School of Social Work

Professor Gilgun and Mr. Sharma will discuss methods of documenting the dynamics of social services. The purpose of such research is to shine light on what has been the black box of intervention effectiveness and ineffectiveness. The seminar is based on research Professor Gilgun and Mr. Sharma have conducted on a child and family intervention program that is part of Ramsey County Human Services and Public Health Departments.

For more information contact:

Prof. Jeffrey L. Edleson

School of Social Work

(612) 624-8795

jedleson@umn.edu

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
Driven to DiscoverSM