TRIO MISSION STATEMENT
Grounded in the civil rights movement, University of Minnesota TRIO programs in the College of Education and Human Development strive to ensure equal opportunity and equitable access to higher education along the educational continuum for underrepresented students, specifically those who are low income, first generation, and have disabilities. We promote retention and graduation through advising, academic support, mentoring, and advocacy, thereby cultivating a space for collegiate success and local and global community engagement.
ABOUT TRIO UPWARD BOUND

TRIO Upward Bound (TRIO UB) at the University of Minnesota’s College of Education and Human Development is a pre-college US Department of Education federal grant program. We offer year-round, intensive and holistic college-readiness skill building for 118 Minneapolis youth at North, South, Patrick Henry, and Edison high schools who come from low income backgrounds and who are potential first generation college going students. Our goal is for students to not only get into college but to earn a college degree.
