

A half-day session in conjunction with the Council of Chief State School Officers
(CCSSO) 2004 National Conference
on Large-Scale Assessment

Alternate Achievement Standards

What are they, do we have them,
and how can we get them?

Kevin McGrew, a co-author of the Woodcock Johnson III, will demonstrate how relationships between intelligence and achievement can inform our expectations for students with significant cognitive disabilities.

Representatives from OESE and OSEP will provide specific information on expectations for alternate assessments based on alternate achievement standards, and respond to questions.

Saturday, June 19, 2004 8:00 a.m. – 12 noon
Boston Marriott Copley Place
110 Huntington Avenue, Boston MA

Early bird registration fee $60. After May 14, $80. Onsite registration (space-available only), $90. Checks or approved purchase orders only. Mail registration form and fee to:

Anne Tomlanovich
TACS/WRRC, 1268 University of Oregon,
Eugene, OR 97403-1268
(P) 541-346-0364 (F) 541-346-0322
Email: atomlano@uoregon.edu

Co-sponsored by the National Center on Educational Outcomes (NCEO), The Regional Resource and Federal Centers (RRFC), The Council of Chief State School Officers (CCSSO), The Access Center, The National Association of State Directors of Special Education (NASDSE), The National Association of State Directors of Title I (NASTID).