

African American Read In

Featuring

Ntozake Shange

Renowned playwright (for colored girls who have considered suicide/ when the rainbow is enuf), poet (Nappy Edges and The Love Space Demands), and Novelist (Betsy Brown, Sassafrass and Cypress & Indigo).

Join in the African American Raed In. An afternoon celebrating African American Literature. Featuring readings and Dramatic performances by youth, students, community members and educators. The entire village will be represented!

Sunday, February 7th,
1999

3:00 pm

Free Admission

"Extraordinary and wonderful . . . Ntozake Shange writes with such exquisite care and beauty that anyone can relate to her message." —The New York Times

*Cowles Auditorium, Hubert H. Humphrey Center
The University of Minnesota
19th Avenue South
Minneapolis, Minnesota*

Readings and Performances by:
J. Otis Powell! - Mahmoud El-Kati and many others.

Lots of prizes and gifts will be given away

For More information please call 626-7352

Co- Sponsored by the following University of Minnesota programs:

The General College
General College Student Board
The African Student Cultural Center and

The Givens Foundation for African American Literature

