The Shared Journey

Chronic Illness & the Aging Family in the 21st Century

Featuring:

Prof. Victoria Raveis

Co-Director, Aging and Public Health Program

Associate Professor of Clinical Sociomedical Sciences

Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia University

Prof. Raveis will talk about the psychosocial issues facing seriously ill adults and the health-related demands and challenges confronting families in aging. She will share her research that has documented the diversity and contributions of the family caring unit, and how her research has informed the development of resources and programs to address family needs.
