

U of MN IRB

- The University of Minnesota IRB consists of more than sixty representatives of faculty, staff, students, and the local community.
- The University of Minnesota campuses at Duluth and Morris have IRB representatives.
- The University of Minnesota IRB reviews all research involving human subjects, irrespective of the funding source.
- This includes research that is funded by federal agencies, state government, foundations, internal grants, departmental funds, etc. (Grants)