Follow your teacher's directions to do this activity.

1. At Ralph’s fruit stand you can buy 3 apples for 90 cents. How much will you pay for 1 apple?

2. At Ralph’s fruit stand you can buy 4 oranges for 90 cents. How much will you pay for 1 orange?

3. At a bank in England 3 U.S. dollars can be exchanged for 2 British pounds. How many British pounds will you receive for 1 U.S. dollar?

4. At a bank in England 3 U.S. dollars can be exchanged for 2 British pounds. How many U.S. dollars will you receive for 1 British pound?

From the Mathematics Teacher, October 1989