

Citation Styles ... What's Yours?

Do you know these styles and the differences among them?

- Review citation styles by going to the following website:
<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Citation>

- As you can see, disciplines vary in the style of their citations. What does Wikipedia state the appropriate style of citation for your discipline is?

- Now cross-check this with your Faculty Mentor – what do they report to be the appropriate citation style for your research?

- List two style guide resources (printed or online manuals) that you will use to properly cite in your discipline's style.
